He was introduced by Ross Trowbridge, program chairman for the day. The speaker gave details of the train trip from Los Angeles in a special car. First stop was at El Paso, Texas, where some of the passengers took the short trip to Mexico and others to Carlsbad Caverns. Other stopovers were at Detroit, Niagara Falls, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and the battlefields of Gettysburg. Hotel Sherbourne in Atlantic City, was the headquarters for the local group.

J. Belmont Mosser of Pennsylvania was the outgoing president of Kiwanis International, and the convention chose as his successor, J. Hugh Jackson, head of the Stanford University business administration department, to head the organization for the coming year.

COUNTY ACCEPTS FOUR STREETS HERE

Four streets in the Campbell area were accepted as county roads this week by the County Board of Supervisors: Vale Avenue, Locust Avenue, Hack Avenue.

Editorial

Campbell's new merchant patrolman, Robert J. Locke, who began duty under his contract September 1, received an unpleasant introduction to his arduous duties today when two local stores were burglarized. Only one of the stores had signed up for the patrol service. That, in itself, is a main difficulty. Patrolman Locke needs all the cooperation the merchants can give him, and one of the best ways is to offer him a complete territory, with all the merchants signed up for nightly service. A spotty territory takes more time to cover, and offers more difficulties to the patrolling officer.

Campbell's shopping district is too extensive for one man to do a satisfactorily complete job. Locke comes to the job with the highest qualifications, but the merchants must do their part.

Even the best policed cities in the country have their share of burglaries, homicides and other crimes. Campbell's merchant patrol will do its very best, but it can't be everywhere at once.

When the American Legion patrol goes into operation soon, the situation will be relieved to a great extent.

Whatever stopgap protection measures are taken, you know and we know that the Campbell community must eventually face the situation squarely and set up a regular police department.

Proof that an organized group can achieve worthwhile aims in this community is now available for all to see. The group is the hardworking Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club. Their successful efforts may be seen at the Campbell Grammar School grounds where, through the determination and zeal of the women, lighting equipment for night ball games has been installed.

Some people can come to a decision and carry it through to achievement. These women did it, aided by volunteer workers who gave up valuable time to install the fixtures. A lot of people laughed and said the BPW efforts would never amount to anything tangible. While those laughs were still echoing, the women went to work, raising the necessary money through donations from local businessmen and private citizens who believed in them.

Next time you meet a BPW member, tell her what a wonderful job her club did.

Driver Arraigned In Death Of Curtis Zobrist

S/Sgt. Robert B. Thorn, 26, of the Presidio at Monterey, charged with felonious drunken driving resulting in the death of Pvt. Curtis L. Zobrist, 26, of 140 Rincon Avenue, Campbell, was arraigned this week before Justice of the Peace John P. Dempsey.

Pvt. Zobrist, a passenger in the car operated by Thorn, was killed July 17 on Winchester Road. Thorn told officers the vehicle hit a soft shoulder and overturned near the Casey Road intersection.

Preliminary hearing was set for September 12, and Thorn was released to Captain Pascal G. Garner, U.S.A. at the Presidio.

Zobrist was the husband of Mrs. Lois Zobrist, 141 W. Rincon Avenue, Campbell, and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bohnett of the same address.

Completion Of Lighting Installation At Softball Field Expected Next Week

The softball field light fund climbed to $2,504.93 this week with receipt of three more donations totalling $215, Mrs. Mary Grey, chairman of the fund drive sponsored by the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club, revealed today. At least $3,000 is required to carry the fund to that required to cover cost of materials and installation.

Donations received were $5. anonymous; $5, anonymous; $200, Campbell Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Grey said the committee hopes to have the lighting for the field, at the Campbell Grammar School grounds, completed by next week, and there is a possibility, she added, that a game may be scheduled toward the end of the week.

Six light poles and the power poles have been installed, and the electrical inspection by county officials passed yesterday. Volunteers expect to complete final wiring, plus pouring of the concrete slab for the announcing booth in a couple of days.

Volunteers have done nearly all the work on the job, giving up spare time and evening hours to rush the job through before school starts. The group worked like beavers all day Sunday on installation of the poles and wiring. Volunteers are Ray Gilpatrick, Bill Cole, Owen Peterson, Tony Bakich, Leo Parks, Bud Weeks, Bud Bachman, Peter Ricci, Kenneth Grey, Harley Poore, Walter Roggasch, Walter Silberbauer, Al Pregliasco, Ed Arata, Joe Meckler, Ray Gibbons, Mr. Fryer, Mike Olmetti, and Bill Plymale and Ronald Gilpatrick, Junior Odd Fellows.

St. Lucy's Fete Rated Success

St. Lucy's Church Carnival, held Saturday and Sunday on the parish grounds, was termed a success by the committee in charge, even though the Sunday schedule was rained out and had to be postponed in part until Monday evening.

"I would like to take this means of thanking everyone who worked so hard and diligently in making the St. Lucy's Carnival the success it was," Chairman Budd Levenberg stated in a public announcement. "If in no other way it showed the true spirit of cooperation—the smallest request for help in any job was quickly and efficiently taken care of. Thanks again. Signed, J. (Budd) Levenchairman."

Annamae Pereira of Hamilton Avenue was awarded the television set. The old car went to S. S. Ridgeley of San Tomas. Joe La Scola of La Scola's Market received the mixmaster, and the blender went to A. Romana of San Jose.

A grand time was had by all who attended, and the ages ranged from 6 to over 60.

Tickets are being distributed this week to participating merchants in the current campaign to increase buy-at-home habits among the community's residents.

Carl Field, chairman of the ticket committee, which is composed of Philip N. Flagg, James Brand, Joseph Fusaro, Pete Lico, Mrs. Thomas Burnett, Andy Santana, Dobie Jeffers, Lowell Benson, William Maderis and Ed Hubert, has received the printed tickets and has begun the task of distributing them to those businessmen who have joined the campaign. Any merchant who has not been contacted by a member of the committee is asked to call Mr. Field any morning. All merchants are eligible to participate.

Tickets will be made available to customers beginning the morning of September 6, and will be given to customers of the merchants until the close of the drive, December 22.

In addition to receiving the free tickets, customers who shop in Campbell can save time, make their money go farther, shop more easily, find their needs readily supplied.

Mrs. Shewbridge Succumbs During Son's Tennis Match

Mrs. Catherine Shewbridge died suddenly Friday evening after suffering a sudden coughing attack while she watched her son, Tom E. Shewbridge, 39, play in the men's finals of the Campbell Open Tennis Tournament at the Campbell High School courts.

Mrs. Shewbridge was 67 years old at the time of her death, and she would have been 68 the following day. She was a native of Forest, Illinois, and she and her husband had lived in San Francisco for 35 years, coming to Campbell to make their home last August.

She is survived by her husband, Edward B. Shewbridge, and son, Thomas.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 9 a.m. from the Rutherford Funeral Home, Campbell, followed by a requiem mass at 9:30 a.m. which was celebrated at St. Lucy's Church, Campbell, by the Rev. Denis Kennelley. Interment was at Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery

Mrs. Shewbridge was the sister-in-law of the Right Rev. Monsignor T. F. Shewbridge of Chicago, and of the Rev. Thomas R. Shewbridge, Kankakee, Illinois

According to her husband, Mrs. Shewbridge was in the best of healthhealth as the two sat in their car near the tennis courts Friday, watching the match. Mrs. Shewbridge suddenly began coughing. She told her husband she felt very ill and was unable to breathe. He carried her out of the car and held her up for a few moments, after which she said she felt better and returned to the car. She refused to have her son called away from his match. In the car she appeared to faint. Mr. Shewbridge, assisted by Mr. and Mrs Maurice Weeks who were in a car alongside, made her comfortable and rove her to O'Connor Hospital, San Jose, where Mrs Shewbridge was pronounced dead on arrival.

On being notified of her death, Mr. Shewbridge sent for his son. The tennis match went, by default, to his opponent.

HODGES BACK AT LOCAL MARKET

Gene Hodges, who has worked as a butcher in the Campbell area for 12 years, is back again at Avila's Market, Meridian and Hamilton, where he is associated with Bob Folden, meat department manager.

MEAT, CASH, TAKEN IN THURSDAY NIGHT ENTRY OF LOCAL CONCERNS

Two local business concerns were burglarized last night or early this morning, and loss estimates in cash and merchandise totalled $554.94. Victims were the Campbell Feed and Supply Co., 201 E. Campbell Avenue, and the Campbell Market, 262 E. Campbell Avenue.

Hardest hit was the feed company, where an apparently professional job of safe-cracking netted the burglars approximately $400 in cash. Deputy Sheriffs Charles Hambaugh and John Van Epps, who are investigating the feed store burglary, said entry was gained through a large sliding door at the side of the building on First Street. Burglars pried off the hasp and entered through the storehouse. In the small office at the rear of the retail division of the store, the safe was opened and the day's receipts removed. Van Epps said it looked like a professional burglary, with the intruders using a punch job technique. The safe dial was removed and the pin punched out. Tools were probably a small sledge hammer, a punch and chisels.

Andy Santana, co-owner of the concern, discovered the loss when he arrived for work at 7:45 a.m. today. Contents of the safe were scattered over the office, but the intruders apparently did not take any of the bank checks in the safe. The burglary took place between 6 o'clock last night and the time Santana arrived this morning. James Santana is the other owner of the business.

At the Campbell Market, heaviest loss was in the meat department, when Butcher Sam Scadina said $110.40 in meats were taken. These included a beef round, 3 large hams, 10 pounds of frankfurters, a slab of bacon, three roasting chickens and a whole hind quarter of veal.

Joe Svilich, owner of the grocery section, said his total loss of $44.54 included $30 in small change from the cash register, cigarettes and a large amount of sugar. Investigating Deputy Sheriffs Fred Goudy and J. C. Hooton said the robbery apparently was not connected with the feed and supply job, and the market burglars had been unable to open the cash register in the butcher department.

Entry was gained through an open, screened transom at the rear of the store. Svilich, who discovered the theft, said he arrived for work early this mornin, but found nothing amiss until a customer came in to purchase cigarettes. Svilich turned to the till to make change and found it empty. Within a few minutes he found the screen over the rear transom had been ripped away.

Deputies said the layout at the rear of the market was an ideal setup for burglars. A low slanting tin roof over an open garage leads to the transom where one man apparently entered, then opened the door below for his confederates. The alley is dark and irregular, offering full protection for burglars who must have hid in the shed while waiting to enter and again to load the stolen loot. The place was entered about five years ago, Goudy said, through a window near the rear door. The building is owned by the Ainsley Corporation.

Campbell Feed had not yet signed up for the merchant patrol service, but the market had. The deputies said that in the market case, the patrolman could easily have found nothing amiss in the rear alleyway, even though the burglars were on hand, since the alley is so dark and burglars could have easily concealed themselves in a number of convenient places.

Moreland School Opening Day Is September 26

Moreland Elementary School will open Monday, September 26. Steinhauer Wins Men's Singles Title Through Default

R. Steinhauer was awarded the championship honors in the men's singles division of the Campbell Open Tennis Tournament Friday, through default of his opponent, Tom E. Shewbridge, when the match was in its final set. Shewbridge was called away before completion of the match due to the unexpected death of his mother, Mrs. Edward B. Shewbridge, who succumbed while watching the tourney.

Score at time of default was: first set, Steinhauer, 8-6; second set, Shewbridge, 6-3; Shewbridge leading 2-love in the third set.

Chamber of Commerce Secretary Lauds Accomplishments of BPW Club

Praise of the work of the Campbell Business and Professional Woman's Club in putting over its drive to raise funds for lighting of the Campbell Grammar School softball field, was issued today by the secretary of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce.

In a letter received from the Chamber secretary, Forrest Reese, he praised the work of the BPW, stating the women's group carried their job "through to completion to enrich the future of our community for all of us."

The letter follows:

"Men are great ones for keeping a confidence (maybe) and we feel that a woman's age comes under the heading of 'strictly confidential,' but we don't think we're betraying any top secrets when we call attention to the fact that on August 26, the women of America were 29 years old — politically speaking.

"Back in 1920, a lot of stalwart males were dead set against allowing the 'weaker sex' to vote. Women were helpless creatures who had to be protected from the burdensome affairs of community, state and nation.

"Well, today, we're eating humble pie. Ever since the little woman got the ballot she's managed to chalk up a record impressive enough to silence the most hardened skeptic.

"We don't have to look far. Our own community is adorned by an organization of women who turned out for the community, and added glory to their name by advancing and carrying to completion a community objective, the lighting of the softball field.

"But it isn't only in the community causes that the ladies have distinguished themselves—not by a long shot. All over the country, women have banded together in clubs of all kinds—to make the U.S.A. an even better place to live in—for ourselves and for generations to come.

"Organizations like the League of Women Voters have done a splendid job in the political arena, reminding us of our responsibilities as citizens, supplying us with information on the burning issues of the day.

"National groups like YWCA have proved powerful forces for human rights and true Americanism. Through hard-hitting educational programs, they have helped to improve our democratic practices—to rid the country of bigotry and discrimination.

"According to an official survey, 214 women in 39 states are now serving in State Legislatures, while nine have achieved one of the greatest distinctions of our time—a seat in the U. S. Congress.

"Yep, it looks as if the girls have come a long way in 29 years and we're proud of them. We are proud of our own Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club, proud of their persistence in the face of odds, proud of their determination to tackle a hard job and carry it through to completion to enrich the future of our community for all of us, the installation of the lights on the softball field.

"Here's a 21-gun salute to the ladies of the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club. More power to them!"

Orchard Grangers View Travel Film; Enjoy Peach Feed After Their Meeting

Motion pictures taken by Attorney and Mrs. Martin Walsh on their recent trip to the east coast and Cuba were shown to the 151 members and guests attending the regular meeting of Orchard City Grange, August 23, in the Campbell IOOF Hall.

All except two of the officers were present for the session. On the motion of Lecturer Wesley Youngclaus, a recess was declared in order that the motion pictures could be shown.

Worthy Master Walsh unreeled the special feature which opened with shots of scenery in Florida. Next came scenic points in Virginia, including the Natural Bridge of Virginia, the church where Patrick Henry made his famous "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" speech, and George Washington's home at Mount Vernon on the Potomac River.

Other spots pictured included Niagara Falls and the cave of the Winds, the Washington monument in the Nation's capital, New York City and the Statue of Liberty.

After the film showing, the regular meeting was opened. A memorial was read in honor of the late Brother Leon Merrill, in which his grange accomplishments were enumerated. New members welcomed were Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and Luella Whitney.

Masters of neighboring granges who were present gave their reports. Mr. Lambert Skillman presented a miniature house to the grange. Mrs. Ora Lear contributed a gift toward the building fund. Two new membership applications were turned over to the committee on membership. A card from Bro. Harry Barnes, treasurer, who is traveling in Canada, was read.

Secretary Herbert Shadle read a report on health insurance applications. Bro. John C. Gordon announced the State Grange meeting to award sixth and seventh degrees, to be held November 14 in Sacramento. Bro. David Rutherford was reported to be ill.

Out-of-town guest speakers were Sister Holzhau of Gilroy, and Brothers Jerry Rowe and Dwight Sheffer of Mount Hamilton and Cupertino Granges. Ray Bayes of Mountain View Grange spoke briefly.

Other county granges represented at the meeting were: San Jose, 7; Mount Hamilton, 7; Mountain View, 22; Cupertino Grange, 14; Gilroy, 4, and Almaden, 2.

By unanimous consent, the local group cancelled its scheduled meeting for September 13, due to conflict with Santa Clara County Fair dates. The meeting was adjourned at 10:30 p.m. and members gathered for a peach feed at which Mervyn and Leone Keesling were the hosts. Mr. Keesling spoke on the history of the peach production in California, telling of sections of the state where the fruit was first grown.

Next meeting of Orchard City Grange will be at 8 p.m., Tuesday, September 27, in the Campbell IOOF Hall. Some 15 grangers who have been on vacation trips this summer will tell of their travels during the entertainment program.

WE SALUTE . . .
Our Railroad Men!
The fine men you see sitting up in locomotives' cabs, heaving coal, setting switches and punching tickets aren't ordinary workers. They're transportation specialists, chosen to perform highly-important jobs. Old Joe, who's been pullin, those heavy freights for 40 years. Happy Bill, who's been on his run since the town started. Faithful Fred who's been brakin' since just Lord knows when. These are family men, good citizens, excellent providers. Casey Jones has been immortalized in song and story because he and all railroad men typify the ever-rollin' ramblin' caboose-and-cab-lovin' personalities so important in our lives. All aboard!

Window Damaged By Rifle Bullet

Clifford C. Whitaker, 135 Casey Road, reported to sheriff's officers last week that two Campbell boys admitted firing a .22 caliber rifle bullet through a bedroom window of his home

Whitaker said the youths had agreed to pay for the window after admitting the act.

Eli Whitney patented the cotton gin before he was thirty.

Windmills first became common in Germany and the Netherlands.

School Officials Urge Voters To Check Registration

School officials in the Campbell district are urging all voters to register before the September 15 deadline. Be sure you are registered, and be sure to vote, is their slogan these days.

Passage of Proposition One on the November 8 special election ballot is of vital concern to all school districts in this area. The proposition establishes a $250,000,000 bond issue for aid to the chools in California.

Principals and district superintendents of the Campbell area schools are accepting contributions at their offices for the campaign fund to advertise the coming election. Money will be forwarded to the California Teachers Association.

Elementary schools in the Campbell district will be principal local beneficiaries of the proposed bond issue if it is passed. Campbell High School would not be eligible to apply for aid under the program since it is capable of meeting its own needs from its own bonded potential of approximately $1,000,000. Only those schools in the state reaching their bonded limits would be eligible to apply for aid under the proposed bond issue.

Tomorrow Final Day To Enter Talent Contest

Only one more Saturday evening remains open for prospective entries in the current amateur talent contest at the Campbell Theater, Manager Harold Donner said this week. He urged all who plan to participate to sign up now for the final open show this Saturday. One week from Saturday, the winners of the previous four weeks' shows will compete for the local winner honors. The winner will appear in a contest at the County Fair this month in competition with winners from other county communities.

Last Saturday's award went to Helen Dawes, who offered two vocal selections. Also on the program was Sid Myring who did two comedy song and dance numbers.

Winners for the previous weeks were the guitar and vocal team of Jimmy Rice and Cal Shoffner, and Henry Ramp, guitarist.

Those wishing to enter the contest should notify Donner before the evening show tomorrow. Winners are selected on the basis of audience applause.

Kiperash, Reiter Exhibit Produce At State Fair

Over 100 Santa Clara County agriculturalists will have their produce on display this week at the opening of the California State Fair, September 1 through 11, in the Santa Clara County exhibit. Growers from Campbell who are having their produce displayed are: George Kiperash & Sons and J. M. Reiter.

Berries and vegetables will be shown by Santa Clara County for the first time in this exhibit. The exhibit will carry out the Centennial theme with a model of San Jose's first capitol building and a model of the Mission Santa Clara, both of which will be covered with dried fruits. 75,000 stuffed prunes and 20,000 prune recipe booklets will be distributed to the Fair visitors by four San Jose State College coeds.

This year's exhibit is the largest and most diversified showing of the County's agricultural wealth and will be located on the main floor of the Counties' Building from the hours of 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. during the length of the Fair.

Kenneth Stephens, of Los Gatos, member of the Chamber of Commerce staff, is exhibit manager. Bill Du Val, Palo Alto, is assistant exhibit manager.

"Dad ... take your boy fishing!" hinted Jack Currall a few days ago and I by-passed it. Now I feel like a second cousin to a jellyfish. My kid, growing weary of the usual brushoff to his plea to go fishing with me, managed to obtain an invitation from Jack, Bill Cochran and son when the boys headed for a trout stream in the nearby Santa Cruz mountains. The catching of "my first trout" means quite a lot to a youngster ... so I've found out! I let the kid down by not being with him to coach and give that paternal pat on the back when he brought in his first trout on Jack's flyrod.

Brownie Mann happened to send me a news clipping that may ease the situation a bit ... "two Massachusetts youngsters borrowed a fishing line, fifteen cents worth of mackerel bait and somehow procured an outboard motor and boat and headed out from shore. The largest tuna of the season at Ipswich grabbed their baited hook. True ... an adult angler helped the boys in getting the 700 pound whopper to shore ... nevertheless, they caught it minus companionship of dear ol' dad." In this case could we change our leading sentence around a bit ...? For instance ... "Boy, take your Dad fishing!"

* * *

Squid proved to be a real fish-getter for Maurice Hagga, local carpenter, and the missus, while fishing from an open launch out from Moss Landing. In less than 2½ hours after leaving the dock the Haggas returned with limits of black cod. Indicating, perhaps, that the migration of black cod or "snapper" is on in Monterey Bay ...? Other catches aboard their boat, according to Maurice, were red rockcod, black cod and kingfish. A 12-foot shark surfaced and snapped off a fish another angler was reeling in.

* * *

Baiting up with fillet sardine, using a delta-type sinker and taut line method in lieu of a sliding sinker setup rewarded Jerry Strong, wife and son with three limits of striped bass in the river above the bridge at Rio Vista. The stripers averaged from 2 to 12 pounds. Jerry stated that larger fish had been taken by anglers trying their luck from the river banks.

* * *

Jerry Greenberg has some canned salmon at home ... and it isn't of the grocery store variety. A 17-pound chinook made the mistake of snapping at Jerry's lure and ended up on the Greenberg's pantry shelf. During the same trip Greenberg tried his luck with a Jensen lure and landed six twelve pound steelhead. All this took place during one of those long vacations some of us dream about ... nothing to do but fish along the Columbia and Klamath Rivers.

* * *

Our pal Noble Walker dropped in to fish-chat a bit and make preparations for a forthcoming deepsea fishing jaunt minus our wives, but it couldn't be done. Either they tag along or we don't go ... prior to the wife versus lingcod excursion, Noble and Al Veith are heading towards Lassen county fully intent upon tracking down or stalking or whatever an Indian with bow and arrow does in getting close enough to a muletail before he cuts loose with a feathered shaft. So far, our local nimrods have been a bit timid in handing out info about the bucks they've shot this year ... they'll never live it down if a bow n'arrer fellow beats 'em to it! A few weeks ago Noble took a lot of kidding from salmon fishermen aboard powerboats at the mouth of the Noyo River while rowing around in a small skiff. His rod propped against the boat transom with the anchor and a hook baited with the shrunken form of an aged-in-the-brine sardine, our pal return-the kidding with fluent, but unprintable remarks. A king salmon eased the tension by making a pass at the trolling bait. Noble got the best of the argument. I often wonder if he was born with a silver (salmon) spoon in his mouth.

Plays Tomorrow

Hershel Carter Now At Seaside

Hershel Carter, formerly with the McCoy used car lot, has taken over the mechanic section at Seaside Service, 32 S. Winchester Rd., next to the Kopper Kettle Donut Shoppe.

A resident of Campbell since 1945, Carter had an active following prior to taking up the work at McCoy's where he worked only on cars at the lot. He is now doing outside mechanic work at Seaside.

Cyrus H. Ivanoff Fined $150

Cyrus H. Ivanoff, 30, Route 2, Box 271-B, Campbell, pleaded guilty before Police Judge Percy O'Connor Monday to a charge of driving while drunk, and was fined $150. His driver's license was suspended for 90 days.

Ivanoff was arrested Friday night at First and Edward Streets, San Jose.

San Jose was founded with a population of 66, fourteen men and and their families, on a site about 1½ miles from the center of the present city.
